This is a "Travel like the locals" tour. The tours use public transport, i.e. regular buses, ferries and boats, but we have done the planning for you so that you can concentrate on enjoying your trip. You travel on your own - there is no guide or tour leader. On most of our tours you must change several times between different buses/ferries/boats, and it is up to you to make sure you catch your connections – truly travelling like a local! (The tours are set up so that the buses, ferries and boats connect.)

Explore Hellesylt and UNESCO Geiranger (one way)

Stryn – Hellesylt – Geiranger

On this trip you can explore the charming village of Hellesylt, experience a wonderful ferry cruise on the Geirangerfjord and have a wander around Geiranger.

You start in Stryn, and after about 20 minutes the bus drives past Hornindalsvatnet lake. This lake is known for being the deepest in Northern Europe (514m), and since "the old days" stories has been told about what creatures exist in the depth. Maybe you get lucky and will see a sea monster when you drive past?

When you arrive at Hellesylt, you have some time to look around. Between the bus stop and the ferry harbour you find the Hellesyltfossen waterfall. This is a mighty waterfall and is one of the most photographed sites in the area. It's an impressive sight early in the summer when all the snow melts.

At Hellesylt you also find the Per Gynt Galleri. The main purpose of the gallery is to present the enormous wooden reliefs by artist and woodcarver Oddvin Parr (1933 - 2010). The works goes from floor to ceiling, and all the motives are from the Norwegian author Henrik Ibsen's work "Peer Gynt".

The trip continues by ferry to Geiranger. The ferry cruise from Hellesylt to Geiranger takes approx. 1 hour, and while cruising down the fjord you can see beautiful waterfalls and small farms in the steep mountain sides.

In Geiranger you can do some sightseeing, shopping, and perhaps visit the Norwegian Fjord Centre which are only a few minutes on foot from the centre of Geiranger and located next to Hotel Union.
